

Grain Storage Bio Security Checklist

- Storage facility(s) are in good repair.
- Storage facility(s) are clean and free from debris including grain, weed seeds, dust and contamination by rodents and birds.
- Storage facility(s) are checked to ensure that rodents, birds and other wildlife do not have access to the stored grain.
- Storage facility(s) are inspected for any sign of insect activity.
- Storage facility(s) are free of pesticide residue (history of storage facility is known).
- Grain arriving on farm for storage is inspected for the presence of insect pests, diseases and weed seeds that could be new to your farm.
- Responsibility for monitoring the condition of the stored grain has been determined.

For further information contact your local GO Office.