

What WE Got here is Failure to Communicate: MEDIA and MB POLITICS

June 15 – 19, 2015

In partnership with the National Public Service Week steering committee, IPAC Manitoba is pleased to present an event on media's role in the political process.

Shannon Sampert, Perspectives & Politics Editor, Winnipeg Free Press will speak about her chapter "What We Got Here Is Failure to Communicate": Media and Manitoba Politics" in the recently published book Disengaged?: Fixed Date, Democracy, and Understanding the 2011 Manitoba Election.

This event is in support of public servants who deliver a wide range of programs and services that support the work of government and the needs of Canadians in their day-to-day lives.

National Public Service Week recognizes the value of the services rendered by public service employees and acknowledges their contribution.

To register for this event please click here.

Speaker: Shannon Sampert ~
Perspectives & Politics Editor, Winnipeg
Free Press

Wednesday, 17 June 2015
11:30 am to 1:00 pm
Canada Room, 7th Floor
240 Graham Avenue, Winnipeg MB
Event Fee: Free, bring your own lunch.*

 There is no cost to attend this event. However, IPAC MB reserves the right to levy a $10.00 no-show charge if you register and do not attend.*

For questions contact:
Robert McLeary
robert.mcleary@wd-deo.gc.ca

