Mrs. STONE moved:

Resolution No. 7: Calling on the Provincial Government to Prioritize and Protect Children in Care and Commit to a Public Inquiry

WHEREAS on Sunday, February 11, 2024, Manitobans witnessed an unimaginable tragedy when five individuals were murdered; and

WHEREAS the victims ranged in ages from two-months to 30 years; and

WHEREAS Manitoba has the second highest rate of intimate partner violence among Canadian provinces at a rate of 633 per 100,000 people, according to police-reported data from Statistics Canada; and

WHEREAS reports indicate that on December 9, 2023, Myah-Lee left a voicemail for her Child and Family Services worker in which he pleaded “to be moved out of” her home in Carman; and

WHEREAS Myah-Lee detailed numerous incidents of home-based violence that she was subjected to resulting in her sharing with a family member that “I feel like I’m trapped in hell”; and

WHEREAS Manitoba’s Advocate for Children and Youth noted, “this case highlights the failures of the government to respond to our recommendations”; and

WHEREAS the mother of 17-year old victim Myah-Lee Gratton advised the media that she had warned CFS against her daughter’s placement in the home due to safety concerns; and

WHEREAS on March 6, 2024, the Minister of Families, the MLA for St Johns, indicated on the public record that she was too busy to discuss issues surrounding children in care, including safety issues; and

WHEREAS the last inquiry held in Manitoba was for the death of five-year old Phoenix Sinclair who was murdered in 2008; and

WHEREAS the Provincial Government has the legislative ability to develop better policies to protect youth in care.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the Legislative Assembly of Manitoba urge the Provincial Government to commit to a public inquiry without delay in order to develop better policies to protect youth in care from potential abuse and provide the necessary resources to the Minister of Families so that no other cry for help goes unanswered or ignored.

And a debate arising,

And Mrs. STONE having spoken,

And MLA CROSS, Mrs. HIEBERT and Mr. NARTH having questioned the Member,

And the debate continuing,

And Hon. Min. FONTAINE, Mrs. HIEBERT and MLA DELA CRUZ having spoken,
