WRITTEN QUESTIONS:

Mr. WASYLIW –

1. In 2012, the Province of Manitoba sued major tobacco companies to recover the costs of providing healthcare services for tobacco-related illness. During the election campaign, the now Provincial Government promised to build a new headquarters for CancerCare. On May 5, 2024, it was reported that the Premier told Manitobans that the tobacco lawsuit had settled, and that the money would be used to construct the new headquarters. The Premier indicated the settlement, ranging from hundreds of millions to up to half of a billion dollars, would arrive by early 2025, yet the province has still not received any money. What is the policy of the Provincial Government in relation to building the CancerCare headquarters and when will it get built?
2. While in Opposition, the NDP held up Bill 22 which overturned a ban on cosmetic pesticides citing the health of Manitobans children were being placed at risk. On August 29, 2023, during the provincial election campaign, at the Environment and Climate Forum, the NDP pledged that they would reinstate the ban on cosmetic pesticides. What is the Provincial Government's current policy on cosmetic pesticides, and will a new ban be forthcoming?
3. The Provincial Government announced that beginning in February, the Province of Manitoba and the City of Winnipeg will move people into housing from one encampment at a time. What is the criteria for determining which encampment is prioritized to be moved and when will the southwood encampment in the University Heights neighbourhood of Fort Garry be scheduled to be moved?
4. During the 2023 election campaign, the Provincial Government pledged to hold gas companies accountable by giving the Public Utilities Board new powers to review, investigate and regulate retail gasoline prices in Manitoba. It was reported that the Premier cited Atlantic provinces that ban "surge pricing" of gas during the summer and on long weekends as an example. Is this still the policy of the Provincial Government and when will Public Utilities Board receive those new powers?

5. The Provincial Government committed to reinstating International Student health coverage during the previous election campaign. Is this still the current policy of the Provincial Government and what is the reason for the delay in reinstating this coverage?
