Gifts From & Celebrating Manitoba's Indigenous People

12. 2019 Special Edition, Proof Silver dollar – Louis Riel: Father of Manitoba
13. Métis Sash - A sash is presented as a thank you to and honor for outstanding cultural, political and social contributions to the Métis Nation. Presentation of a sash is considered a great honor and it is worn with pride and esteem.
14. Beaded Medallion donated by Kevin Chief, former MLA and The Winnipeg Aboriginal Sport Achievement Centre (WASAC) – an organization that embraces the pride of Indigenous children, youth and families through sport, culture and education. The Indigenous Jets logo used was created by True North and Leticia Spence a graphic designer from Pimicikamak First Nation in Northern Manitoba. The beadwork done on items such as this has a long tradition among Indigenous People, with artists creating complex designs on Powwow regalia, mittens and moccasins. This artwork is a symbol of resiliency and pride for many Indigenous people.
15. Beaded tobacco pouch made by Roxanne Shuttleworth, Wolf Kwe Fashions & Designs for Life (sister of our Sergeant-at-Arms, Dave Shuttleworth). The beading on the pouch is the Manitoba flower "Prairie Crocus" which Aboriginal people of the plains used in a poultice for healing purposes. In many First Nations, Metis and Urban Indigenous communities, it is customary to offer a gift of tobacco when making a request of an elder or a knowledge keeper. Tobacco is one of the four sacred medicines and has great ceremonial significance.
16. Soapstone carving representing Inuit sculptors.
17. Inukshuk – (a structure of rough stones stacked in the form of a human figure, traditionally used by Inuit people as a landmark or a commemorative sign. Honourable George Hicks was Speaker of the Legislative Assembly and the first Inuit MLA of Manitoba.

Celebrating Manitoba's Women

31. Trailblazers of the first 100 years booklet and medallion - In the first 100 years since the passage of legislation granting Manitoba women the right to vote on January 28, 1916 (the first in Canada), only 51 women have been elected to the Manitoba Legislative Assembly as MLAs (vs. 850 men) and only a small number have served as Officers of the Legislative Assembly. This permanent exhibit celebrates and uplifts the achievements of 18 women who were in positions traditionally held by men or who have worked to forge new pathways for women.

32. Manitoba Women Gain Right to Vote: Information from the plaque unveiling of the Vote100 Permanent Exhibit recognizing the 100th anniversary of provincial enfranchisement. This exhibit was a joint effort by the Speaker of the Manitoba Legislative Assembly and The Nellie McClung Foundation.

33. Commonwealth Women Parliamentarians (CWP) brochure. All elected female members across Canada are a member of CWP Canada an international and national organization which strives to encourage and support women to discover their political potential and run for office. Even in 2020 there remains a democratic deficit in our system of democracy because the number of elected women continues to hover around 25% even though the word is made up of 52% women.

34. 100 Years of Women getting the Vote pin

35. Coin from the Manitoba Mint celebrating the 100th anniversary of the women's right to vote.
